

Sustainable Corporate Governance Initiative: Due Diligence Principles and Practical Experience

26th January 2022, 10 a.m.–12 p.m. (CET)

Zoom Webinar

The aim of the webinar is to clarify the content of due diligence standards and, based on good practice examples, explain how companies can effectively implement them. In the context of the EU's sustainable finance strategy, due diligence is one of the conditions for the so-called sustainable activities according to the EU taxonomy and green financing under the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation, including green bonds.

Aimed primarily at representatives of public administration, the business sector, banks and investors.

ORGANISER

Frank Bold is a purpose-driven law firm using the power of business and non-profit approaches to solve social and environmental problems. The organisation initiated the Alliance for Corporate Transparency project, which is analysing the corporate disclosure on sustainability issues by the 1000 largest companies operating in the EU. We are changing the current practice of sustainability reporting and related legislation on the EU level in cooperation with leading civil society organisations, progressive companies and other experts in the field.
